VIRNIA POLITICS.

[Correspondence of the Republican.] to Greener C. H., Sept. 3, 1874.

The deep irest felt in the result of the approaching ction of a member of Congress for thistrict in the Forty-fourth Congress was evided by the unusually large crowd which assemblat this place to-day to hear the joint discussiosetween the rival candidates, Hon. James lener, the present Representa-tive of the dist, and Major B. B. Dougha, the Democratic name. The day was clear, beautiful and pleas; and the notice of the discussion had reached tadjoining counties, so that the crowd was thergest seen on the court green since the war, sittors were present from the counties of Rhond, Westmoreland, Stafford and Spottsylva, and there was a general outpouring of the manry, the bone and sinew of

old King Georg

The division time agreed upon was for one hour and a quar each for the opening speech and half an he and twenty minutes respec-tively for the staders. The Circuit Court, which was in sen, adjourned to give the candidates and the peethe use of the room, and the discussion commend at 1 o'clock. Mr. Sener was introduced Dr. W. B. K. Price, of this county, in a home manner, and opened the discussion with interesting account of his stewardship, exping as fally as time would allow his courseths several important measures which camefore the last sension of Congress. During tutire speech he had the pro-found attention die large audience, both white people and colorNo one could listento his clear and able explant of his acts as a Representaand able explant of his acts as a Representa-tive without yieg to the conviction that he had been energetic staithful, and that his constit-ments could noticge a single reason why he should not be resed. The effect of this speech was telling. Nonly all of his former friends will stand by hipon his record, but many who opposed him int will now support him, and hey openly exp their satisfaction with him. Douglas untroduced by Col. E. T. The history che Memonite sect is very curious. Originally denomination of Raptists organized in Holls by Memo Simonis, they suffered from theational prejudices which confounded them the Amabaptists, until they were protected. William of Orango. In the seventeenth anglitheenth centuries they became very powerful in accessions of exiles, of their own creed, from runany and Switzeriand. They suffered from reloas persecutions, however, until the revolution 1818, when Louis Philippe was driven from therone of France and all Europe was convulsed, we the German States granted them full civil sits. At the close of the eighteenth century, reral thousand German Memonites retreaten Southern Russia and founded quiet retilementheing granted a charter from the Fungeror Pt of freedom from military service forever.

It was the enayor of the present Crar of Russia to force ein into military service which has caused the par immigration of this sect to the United Stat. As early as 1709, however, a number of their milits from the Palatinate settled in Lancast county, Pennsylvania. The most important ork in their history is said to bear the simple of pleasing title of "Geschold-enis der Doopgenden in Friesland, Uveryssel en Coattricsland,", and is written by the ominent author, Higo Ten Cate. The people are remarkable for true, thrift and industry. The men now at Cass Garden are fine specimens of stalwart manbit, the women, although not beautiful, are gasing and well-mannered, and the children health and closely. Nearly all are to join the settment—already quite large—in the southern pa of Dakota. They are generally possessed of sor money, as is instanced by the

THE ATH OF SAFETY. At the Repulsan ratification held in Johan-bus, Ohio, a fe days since, Schator Sherman made an able adress, during which he said: The true paths eases, during which he gaid. The true paths eases, and duty demands that we who have wron these guarantees upon the Constitution aniaws should stand together in hearty and war political association until all of them are excited and enforced. Until then the mission of all wanties are

A Florida coraspondent, in the course of an in-teresting communication regarding Florida nab-erias, says: "Th best fishermen in Florida are the pelicans an ospreys. A pelican consumes about a peck of sh a day. They flock about the inlets and straitsby thousands. Supposing there are 2,000,000 nelians in Florida-there are cortainly more tha that—they would out 103,000 bushels of fish each day, or 182,500,000 bushels per year. The millios upon millions white and blue cranes, herons, criews, gulls, fishhawks, king-fishers and other rater fewl, devour thousands of fishers and other rater fowl, devour thousands of bushels of fish every twenty-four hours. An experience: Cracke estimates that w00,000 hushels of fish a day are required to feed the birds of Florida alone. This would make 225,500,000 bushels each year, .dd to this the billions of fish swallowed by shrks, bass and others, and the sum total will rach nearly 2,000,000,000 bushels destroyed by feahered and finny insterment up the peninsula in twade months. At first glance these figures appear cormous; but let any man make his own estimateand carefully figure it up, and he will find themsinder instead of over."

When a man omes home and tries to bolt his door with a swet pointo, pokes the fire with the spout of a coffe-pot, attempts to wind up the spout of a coffe-pot, attempts to wind up the clock with his loc-jack, tries to cut kindling wood for his mening fire with a paper-knife, takes a cold potte in hand to light him to bed, and prefers sleeting in his has and boots, you may reasonably infer that he has been making the acquaintaneous some very friendly people.
